Psst... Every donation to the Decades Campaign in part supports Benjamin and Makoto JUMPING INTO A BATHTUB FULL OF ICE. If we double our goal, Alex will do it too. That's what we call return on investment.

The Decades Campaign is in the home stretch. Only a few days left to help us meet our $10,000 goal!

If you've been on the edge, now is the time.

If you're waiting for the end, now is the time.

If you decided you definitely wouldn't be giving us any money, now is the time, but opposite that.

As we move forward with the Decades Campaign, we'll use most of the money to buy time-- professional artist hours. The real resource that lets us create dances and armies and performance from nothing, design events that bring people together, and pull ambitious projects into reality. Your dollars become time, and that is an incredible gift.

The Decades Campaign has a dollar-for-dollar match up to $10,000, and a bonus $5,000 if we reach that goal. Math makes our heads hurt too, so put simply: If we raise $10,000, we get $25,000.

We did it. We just hit $10,000 with 12 hours to spare.

Thank you to Jonathan Silver for putting us over the top, and to all those who have chipped in over the course of this campaign. We are so grateful, and we love every one of you so much.

We have unlocked our match and turned $10,000 into $25,000, but there's still room for your name on the wall of gratitude! Your support is still important, and it's never too late.... See More
